

McClellan's Retreat

★ DU PONT ★

As recommended by the local government to assist in contact tracing, we require full names & contact information for all guests before any reservation is seated. Anyone who is unable or unwilling to provide such information will be denied entry into our establishment. To avoid any delay in being seated please provide this information in your reservation notes in advance of your arrival.

We ask that you please wear a mask or face covering when ordering from our staff, interacting with guests at other tables, or when you get up to use the restroom. You will not be permitted inside our establishment without a mask. Guests must remain seated at their reserved table and adhere to social distancing measures from other parties.

For your safety, our staff has their temperature checked before they start their shift every day. They wash their hands before handling anything that is brought to your table. They wear masks the entire evening, with every guest interaction, handling of any food or drink preparation. If they are feeling unwell, they've been instructed to please stay home. We ask that you do the same for their safety. If you are feeling unwell, please stay home.

Each table must order at least one prepared food item as required by the Alcohol Beverage Regulation Administration.

We will only be accepting one payment per party.

Finally, please understand that we love that you've decided to join us for part of your evening. We wish we could keep you here all night, but it just wouldn't be fair to other folks that we love and would also like to get out of their house for a part of their evening. That being said, we have to let you know that we must limit indoor reservations to ninety minutes and a minimum spend of $60. If you arrive late for your reservation that cuts down on your time.

Reservations will be given away after 15 minutes. If your reservation is canceled due to weather, you will be given the same day & time the following week.
